

REFUGEES, MIGRATION AND POLITICAL CULTURE

CAMBRIDGE / LONDON 11 DECEMBER 2017

SUPPORTED BY DAAD, UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE, DEUTSCHES LITERATURARCHIV MARBACH, THE WARBURG INSTITUTE

PROGRAM

Workshop: University of Cambridge, Pembroke College, CB2 1RF, Thomas Gray Room

- 09:15 Henning Grunwald, Cambridge, and Marcel Lepper, Marbach: Welcome & Introduction
- Section 1: Intellectual networks, exile movements, global archives
- 09:45 Marcel Lepper, Sonja Arnold, Marbach: Global Archives
- 10:15 Lynn Wolff, Michigan: H.G. Adler and Max Brod in Exile: Divergent Trajectories, Literary Intersections
- 10:45 Coffee break
- 11:15 Ulrich van Loyen, Köln: The Exile as a Conquest. Steiner's Ethnopoetry and its use for an anthropology of literature
- 11:45 Daniel Siemens, Newcastle: Between two worlds: Jella Lepman in Britain, 1936-1945
- 12:15 Lunch
- Section 2: Legal, institutional and political frameworks
- 13:15 Gary Gerstle, Cambridge: Race and Nation in the 20th Century
- 13:45 Maria Abreu, Cambridge: Migration and Economy
- 14:15 Discussion and Outlook
Marion Berghahn, Oxford, and Markus Messling, Berlin: Responses

Roundtable: The Warburg Institute, Woburn Square, London WC1H 0AB, Lecture Room

18:00

Roundtable: Refugees and Political Culture – Lessons from History?

Lord Alf Dubs, Marion Berghahn, a scholar nominated by CARA (Council for At-Risk Academics), Waseem Yaqoob. Chair: Henning Grunwald

Registration

Please register in advance for the roundtable by clicking this link: <http://bit.ly/Refugees1>

Concept

Dr. Sonja Arnold – Scientific Coordinator, German Literature Archive Marbach – Email: sonja.arnold@dla-marbach.de

Dr. Henning Grunwald – DAAD Lecturer in Modern European History. Fellow of Pembroke College, University of Cambridge – Email: henning.e.grunwald@gmail.com

PD Dr. Marcel Lepper – Director of Research, German Literature Archive Marbach – Email: forschung@dla-marbach.de

Dr. Claudia Wedepohl – Archivist – The Warburg Institute. School of Advanced Study, University of London – Email: Claudia.Wedepohl@sas.ac.uk

Contact

Dr. Henning Grunwald – DAAD Lecturer in Modern European History. Fellow of Pembroke College, University of Cambridge – Email: henning.e.grunwald@gmail.com – Telephone +44 1225 359256